The purpose of this filing is to convert the bases of the cash and non-forfeiture values of policy form 42-2000 previously approved by your Department on July 7, 2000 to 2001 CSO.

Submitted herewith for your review and approval is form 42-2000R replacement pages 10, 11, 12, and 13. When approved, these pages will replace the same pages and form part of policy form 42-2000 Individual Term Life Policy with Automatic Conversion and will serve to convert the policy's cash value and nonforfeiture value bases to 2001 CSO. The pages submitted have been designated form number 42-2000R to distinguish them from the previously approved pages.

Approval of New York, the Company's state of domicile, is pending.

Pages 10 and 11 consist of the Table of Values for the early conversion policy (if the policy is converted at the insured's age 21). Pages 12 and 13 consist of the Table of Values for the automatic conversion policy (conversion at the insured's age 25). These pages differ from the previously approved versions in three respects only: (1) the stated bases of the cash values and nonforfeiture values have been changed to 2001 CSO tables; (2) the values shown have changed in accordance with the new cash value and nonforfeiture value tables; and (3) the form number in the lower left hand corner has been changed to "42-2000R". Copies of the previously approved pages marked to show these changes are submitted herewith to facilitate your review of this filing.

There is no change in the marketing method and target market. The policy will continue to be marketed by direct mail to the parents of young people, usually students, between the ages of 5 and 24. The policy is not illustrated. A specimen Statement of Policy Cost and Benefit Information is submitted herewith for your information. In addition, there is no change to the premiums charged or the death benefit payable. As form 42-2000R consists of tables of values not subject to readability certification, no Flesch score certification is required.

An actuarial memorandum is also submitted herewith with respect to form 42-2000R.
