AARP[®] Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans

Welcome to today's presentation prepared for retirees of [employer name here].

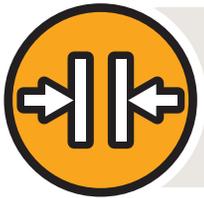

The AARP Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans carry the AARP name and UnitedHealthcare pays a royalty fee to AARP for use of the AARP Intellectual property. Amounts paid are used for the general purposes of AARP and its members. Neither AARP nor its affiliate is the insurer.

Not connected with or endorsed by the U.S. Government or the federal Medicare program.

What Is a Medicare Supplement Insurance Plan and How Does It Work with Medicare?

Here is an overview:

- Medicare supplement plans are policies sold by private health insurance companies
- The plans are standardized and benefit levels vary by plan
- Helps pay some costs Medicare doesn't pay, like co-insurance, co-payments and deductibles*
- Medicare only covers about 80% of Part B medical expenses. Medicare supplement plans help cover some of the remainder, about 20% or more of those costs
- Plans offer the freedom to go to any hospital or physician that accepts Medicare patients

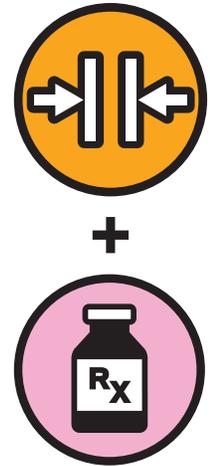

Medicare supplement plans give you the freedom to go to any hospital or physician that accepts Medicare patients

 Depending on the plan selected*

How Medicare Supplement Plans Can Work with Medicare Part D

Medicare supplement plans by themselves do not cover prescription drug costs. If you wish to have this additional coverage you'll need to buy a Medicare Part D plan along with your Medicare supplement plan.

Medicare Part D is a separate optional insurance that can help lower prescription drug costs

Who Is Eligible to Apply for an AARP® Medicare Supplement Plan?

To apply, you need to meet the following criteria:

- Be enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B*
- Age 65 or older (or under age 65 with certain disabilities in some states)

- Be a member of AARP

Not an AARP member?

You can apply for AARP membership when you apply for an AARP Medicare Supplement Plan.

 In some states, plans may be available to persons eligible for Medicare by reason of disability.*

Why Choose a Medicare Supplement Plan?

- Your coverage goes with you if you travel or move anywhere in the U.S.
- Foreign Travel Emergency benefit is included for emergency services (with some plans)*
- Coverage is guaranteed renewable as long as you pay your premium when due and no material misrepresentations have been made at the time of the application
