

RULE AND REGULATION 9

CORPORATE MINUTE BOOKS

Effective January 1, 1968, all domestic insurance companies will submit blank pre-numbered pages to be used in the company's minute books to the Department. The Department will mark each page and return to the insurer.

Subsequent to the effective date of this regulation all domestic insurers must account for all pre-numbered and marked pages to be used in their minute books. A control of the pre-numbered and marked pages will be maintained by this Department.

History. – Issued December 19, 1967, effective January 1, 1968.